Calming Room/Toddler Room:For the convenience of parents and young children, the cry room has windows to see into the church, speaker system to hear the Mass, and sound absorbing panels to confine sounds to the cry room. Please do not pacify children in the foyer - sounds echo into the church. This enables the parent, priest, and congregation to more prayerfully and attentively follow the Mass.

New Parishioners:Welcome to our parish community. We encourage you to become actively involved members of the parish.

Mission Statement

The members of the Catholic Community of St. Joseph parish commit ourselves to live the teachings of Jesus Christ nourished by the Eucharist, guided by the Holy Spirit. Together we continue the mission of Christ through acts of Spirituality, Charity, Hospitality, and Stewardship

Spirituality:

Joined together in Baptism, we gather as a worshipping community to celebrate the Sacraments. We pray together the Liturgy of the Eucharist to strengthen each other and ourselves.

Charity:

We will demonstrate our love of God and our neighbors through our generosity, prayers, and support.

Hospitality:

We will create a parish life of Christian fellowship to welcome each other and our guests in Christian love.

Stewardship:

We will care for and use responsibly, our gifts of time, talent, and treasure which God has given us, to enrich our community.

*"I am the salvation of the people,
says the Lord. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever."*

Parish Worship

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Luke 16: 1 - 13

Ephraim, Harp of the Spirit, A Charismatic Prayer Group: "Be open to Christ, welcome the Spirit, so that a new Pentecost may take place in every community." John Paul II

Children's Liturgy of the Word: Children's Liturgy of the Word, where the readings are explained to children at their level, is on every Sunday during the 10 am Mass. From the Pastor

As I will very soon be giving my presentation on the Sacraments of Healing; Anointing of the sick, and Penance at our "Road to Emmaus" I thought I would give a brief overview about the Anointing of the sick as there are some who are confused with its theology before and after Vatican Council II. I have seen countless miracles from many who have been healed or given strength by this Sacrament instituted by Christ to give Grace.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient. The Sacrament may be repeated if the sick person recovers after the anointing but becomes ill once again, or if, during the same illness, the person's condition becomes more serious. A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention (cf. Rite of Anointing, Introduction, nos. 8-10).

Moreover,, "old people may be anointed if they are in weak condition even though no dangerous illness is present. Sick children may be anointed if they have sufficient use of reason to be comforted by the holy sacrament... [The faithful] should be encouraged to ask for the anointing, and, as soon as the time for the anointing comes, to receive it with faith and devotion, not misusing the sacrament by putting it off" (Rite of Anointing, nos. 11, 12, 13).

Only bishops and priests may be ministers of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. A penitential rite followed by the Liturgy of the Word opens the celebration. Scripture awakens the faith of the sick and family members and friends to pray to Christ for the strength of His Holy Spirit. The priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person. He then proceeds to anoint, with the Blessed Oil of the Infirm, the forehead and hands of the sick person (in the Roman Rite). He accompanies these acts with the words, "Through this Holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with grace of the Holy Spirit. + May the Lord who frees you from sin+ save you and raise you up" (CCC, no. 1513).

For those who are about to depart from this life, the Church offers the person, Penance, Anointing of the Sick, and the Eucharist as "Viaticum, (food for the Journey) given at the end of life. These are the sacraments that prepare for our heavenly homeland (cf CCC, no. 1525) These rites are highly valued by Catholics as powerful aids to a Holy death. Since Holy Communion is the effective sign of Christ's Paschal Mystery, it becomes for the recipient the opportunity to unite one's own suffering and dying to that of Christ with the hope of life eternal with him. The special words proper to Viaticum are added: "May the Lord Jesus Christ protect you and lead you to everlasting life. Amen."

My friends I will celebrate this sacrament any time you ask, as in the ritual itself, "Is there any one sick among you let them call for the Priest and let them anoint them in Jesus Name." The next communal anointing of the Sick at Mass will be the during the 12 noon Mass, this Sunday, September 18th and the fourth Sunday of Lent, Latare Sunday. Jesus beckons the sick and dying in Matthews Gospel, "Come to me all you are burdened and Heavy laden and I will give you rest!" Mt.

Food Pantry 2016: We have had 683 visits to our Food Pantry so far this year. We have registered 48 new families. School is now back in session so that the need for food items for a quick breakfast, school lunches and after school snacks are a priority. Some of our Pantry families qualify for free breakfast and lunch, but many do not. Your generosity over the summer months has been greatly appreciated and we look forward to your continued support.

Gift Card Donations: We are always in need of ALDI, Costco, CVS, Dollar Tree, Giant, Rite Aid, Safeway, Sam's Club, Shoppers and Shop Rite Gift Cards in order to keep our Pantry shelves well stocked.

Social Concerns Projects: The summer camps for inner city children that are run by Little Friends for Peace are over for this year. The amount of camp supplies collected by St Joseph's was truly remarkable. The staffs of Little Friends for Peace are in awe of the generosity of our parishioners and extend their heartfelt gratitude for all of our donations.

Please continue to remember the needs of McKenna Center, the homeless shelter in DC that St. Joseph's helps to support. They are in constant need of Size Large and Extra Large men's underwear (briefs and t-shirts), new socks, and travel-size toiletries including deodorant, tooth-brushes, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, conditioner, lotion, razors and small combs. Dear Parish Families,

Last Week's Summary: We began our series of High School visits from local Private High Schools. This is a great opportunity for our 7th and 8th grade students to find out more information about schools they may be interested in attending. We closed the week with some great speeches from our student candidates running for student council.

This Week at a Glance: Friday, September 23rd, will be a Noon dismissal. This Saturday, September 24th will be our Annual Crab Feast, following the 5:30 pm Mass at St. Joseph's Church! Make sure you get your tickets in advance. Last year we ran out of space and had to stop selling tickets. This year's Crab Feast will feature raffle and door prizes, along with a silent auction. We hope to see you there!

Next Week at a Glance: We will host Virtus Training on Monday September 26th, at 7:00 pm. Please make sure you attend this class and complete your background check if you plan to visit the school during normal operating hours. Band will begin this week for our 4th through 8th grade students. Finally, Mr. Hooker will compete in Ironman Maryland in Cambridge, MD on Saturday October 1st.

Enrollment: We are still ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS! We are almost out of space in Kindergarten and Pre-K! For new families entering K-8th, you may enroll online <http://stjosrcs.org/registration/> by clicking on the TADS links. To schedule a private tour please call the school 301-937-7154, or email secretary@stjosrcs.org.

How you can help: Mr. Hooker is racing Ironman Maryland (in Cambridge, MD) on October 1st to raise money for a Principals Emergency Tuition Assistance (PETA) Fund. This fund will be used to help our school families that experience financial trouble during the school year. His goal is to build this fund up to $5,000.00. In order to reach this goal he has extend a challenge and promise to all of you. If we can all work together to raise a total of $5,000.00 he will let a student shave his head and beard on stage in front of the whole school, and video tape the whole process. To further extend the challenge Msgr. Karl has pledged to get a crew cut on stage and Mr. House has pledged to cut off his pony tail if we can raise $10,000.00. The deadline to raise funds for this year will be Saturday, October 1st. You can donate to help build this fund by going to any page on our school website and clicking the yellow donate button on the right hand side of the page, or the bottom of the page. Please add the special instructions "run" to your donation. For more information visit the updates page on our school website.
